By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 13.—The federal tax reduction bill, that was designed to return the nation to something like a pre-war levy was passed by a haggard senate at 11 o'clock last night, after 14 days of debate.

Carrying reductions of $456,000,000 from the present law, about $126,000,000 more than Secretary of the Treasury Mellon thought safe, the measure now goes to conference.

Committees representing the senate and the house will meet behind closed doors Monday and attempt to reconcile the changes made by the senate in the bill as passed by the house.

It appears that the senate will recede from many of its actions and prune the total of the bill so that it will come nearer to the figure Mallon advised.

The house provisions for an estate tax may be restored and the automobile and admission taxes may be put back to make the reduction smaller.

The conference will conclude its work before the end of next week and the bill will be signed by President Coolidge so that the reduction will affect payments which must be made March 15.

The action of the senate came at the end of 12 hours of debate, even the weary little group of opponents to the measure praying for the end. The roll call on final adoption was 59 to 9.

The nine who opposed the republican-democratic coalition, throughout the debate, included six western republicans, Frazier of North Dakota, LaFollette of Wisconsin, McMahers of South Dakota, Norbeck of South Dakota, Norris of Nebraska and Nye of North Dakota; two democrats, Reed of Missouri and Wheeler of Montana, and one farmer-laborite, Shipstead of Minnesota.

Besides these, Senators Blease of South Carolina, democrat; Johnson, California, republican; Brookhart, republican, Iowa, and Howell, republican, Nebraska, were paired against the measure to show that they would have voted against it had they been present.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Characterizing the $456,000,000 reduction of the federal revenue bill passed in the senate last night as "the most impracticable thing in world," Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, administration leader, assured President Coolidge today that he was confident it will be cut to a safe figure before congress finishes with it.

"It is absurd to pass a measure which will not pay our yearly governmental expenses," the Utah senator said after his call at the White House.

Senate and house financial leaders will meet at 2 P. M. Monday to adjust the bill so it will not jeopardize the government as it does now, Smoot informed the president.

Smoot wanted the conference to be held today to get action within a few days but he finally agreed to the postponement asked by Chairman Green of the house ways and means committee.

The bill passed by the senate reduces taxes by $100,000,000 too much, Smoot said, unequivocally asserting he would not be satisfied until the reduction is cut by at least half this amount.

"The nation is entirely capable of paying a tax larger than is proposed by the senate bill," he added.

Army General Staff to be Virtually Reorganized

THREE CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH, 5 SUFFER INJURIES

Ladysmith, Wis., Feb. 13.—(UP)—Three children burned to death and five others with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, were taken to a hospital suffering severe burns today when fire destroyed their home here.

Only the youngest baby escaped the flames. The infant was thrown from a window by the mother before suffering injury.

An explosion occurred while the oldest boy was starting a fire in the kitchen stove. Flames spread instantly through the home, a small far paper building.

ALTERED FACE BUT NEGLECTED FINGER TIPS

LUKE O'NEILL SPENT $1,000 TO HAVE HIS FACE CHANGED

AUTHORITIES TAKE HIM ON A MURDER CHARGE, TRACING FINGER PRINTS

Danville, Ill., Feb. 13.—(UP)—Luke O'Neill spent $1,000 to have his face altered in order to avoid detection but he neglected the most certain means of identification, his finger tips.

Today O'Neill is in the custody of Danville authorities who claim he confessed the murder of Catherine Gore in New York, September 13, 1925.

O'Neill was arrested for the theft of an automobile in St. Louis. His finger prints were taken as a matter of jail routine but an alert officer noted the similarity between the prints and those contained in a New York police bulletin concerning the murder of Miss Gore.

Confronted with this evidence O'Neill confessed.

O'Neill said he had been traveling about the middle west as Edgar Vance, after spending $1,000 for facial operations so that he would not be recognized.

ATTIRED IN BEAUTIFUL GOWN, SHE KILLS SELF

MISS ANNA KOPEN, PRETTY RUMANIAN GIRL, FOUND DEAD

SHOOTS HERSELF IN FASHIONABLE HOTEL IN MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Feb. 13.—(UP)—After making an elaborate toilet and attiring herself in a dazzling beautiful gown, Miss Anna Kopen, pretty 22 year old Rumanian girl, committed suicide in her room at a fashionable hotel here today.

Miss Kopen had been a guest at the hotel several days. She left for a time this morning. A shot was heard soon after her return and the hotel employees found her body on the floor of the room she occupied.

Two notes were left, one in Rumanian and the other in English. The English note was addressed to Sam Davis, Minneapolis. It thanked him for "introducing me to Julius," and added:

"I am sorry I met him. He broke my heart in pieces."

The note written in the girl's native language has not been translated.

Miss Kopen came here recently from New York. She had two brothers here, George and Jack, an employee of the Pillsbury Milling Company.

EFFORTS MADE TO SAVE LIVES OF COWBOY BANDITS

FRANTIC ELEVENTH HOUR APPEALS TO THE COURTS

ATTORNEYS SOUGHT TO POSTPONE EXECUTION AND GET SANITY HEARING

Chicago, Feb. 13.—(UP)—The state of Illinois today took the lives of three murderers, two in Chicago and one at Jacksonville.

Jack Woods and Joe Holmes, cowboy bandits who participated in the spectacular raid on the fashionable Drake Hotel last July killing Frank Rodkey when he blocked their path, were hanged together in the Cook county jail at 9:45 A. M.

Alva Grimmett was hanged in the county jail at Jacksonville at 8 A. M. for the murder of William Steele, Nortonville merchant, whom he shot to death last September.

Holmes and Woods were taken from the cells at 9:30. Both stepped out briskly.

As they walked down the corridors on the death march cries of "Good-bye, Joe" and "Goodbye, Jack" were audible all over the building as their fellow prisoners shouted.

On the scaffold both men reiterated their innocence.

Last night Woods wrote into a small Testament that:

"I have given my heart to the Lord Jesus and if other boys would do the same He would keep them out of trouble."

A minister attended him.

Holmes, the more stoical of the two, did not take to religion until last night, to any extent. He asked for a priest.

Kneeling beside the priest in the death chamber, Holmes insisted upon saying the only prayer he knew: "Now I lay me down to sleep," he said, and continued with the prayer he had been taught at his mother's knee.

More than 300 people watched the execution and a crowd of several hundred gathered outside. Applications for more than 2,000 tickets were received for the hanging.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Frantic 11th hour efforts to save the lives of Jack Woods and Joe Holmes, cowboy bandits, failed early today and they were resigned to their fate.

Attorneys and friends spent the night in a vain effort to get some Chicago judge to postpone the double execution and call a sanity hearing.

Dr. Ben Reitmann, president of the "Hobo College," and friend of down and outers, lent his support to the appeal.

But at 5 A. M. the attorneys and Reitmann gave up. They went to the death chamber and told Woods and Holmes their execution could not be avoided.

The cool bravado that has characterized the former cowboys since they raided the exclusive Drake Hotel, killing an employee, who failed to answer their command, the air of assurance they assumed throughout their days in jail, dropped when they heard the news. Woods called a Protestant minister and Holmes a Catholic priest. They talked earnestly with the clergymen and then prayed.

Woods and Holmes were participants in the spectacular hold-up on the Drake Hotel on Lake Shore Drive last July. With three companions all under the influence of liquor, they swarmed through the lobby, gained entrance to the manager's office, lined up employees, shot to death Frank D. Rodkey, a cashier, and fled to the street. Two were killed by police as they fled. Woods and Holmes were captured and the fifth bandit escaped with about $5,000.

At the time of his death Holt had just completed a revision of his widely read volume, "The Cosmic Relations and Immortality."

One of his books most widely read was "Garrulities of an Octogenarian" published three years ago.

ATTACKS WIFE AND DAUGHTER WITH A SHOTGUN

Madison, Wis., Feb. 13.—(UP)—Mike Conlin, 53, a farmer residing near here, was arraigned in superior court here today on two counts of attempted murder as a result of his attack on his wife and daughter with a shotgun, after becoming incensed over some trivial matter.

Mrs. Conlin is in a local hospital as the result of several shots which entered her body. The daughter was only slightly injured. Conlin is being held under $10,000 bonds.

HARD COAL REGION REGAINS EQUILIBRIUM

SCRANTON SECTION IS AGAIN HUMMING WITH ACTIVITY

OPERATORS BEGIN ADVANCE PREPARATIONS FOR SHIPMENTS

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 13.—The anthracite region has recovered its equilibrium after the joyous announcement that the long and bitter coal strike was virtually ended and this section hummed again with activity.

While the hard coal miners are not expected to return to work until Thursday, thus deferring for at least a week the first shipments of coal to the seaboard, operators began advance preparations for shipments.

Railroads rounded up forces of trainmen dropped for the duration of the suspension and empty cars started rolling towards the mines.

They will be parked in long lines on sidings, awaiting their turn of production stilled for almost six months.

Many engineers and firemen went back to their positions today and fired blazes again in boilers, producing steam which will operate the machinery and cages in hundreds of collieries.

It is the end of a vacation for the mine mules, who in surface enclosures have seen what to them is an unusual phenomenon, the sun. When they go into the pits once more, it may be five years before they see the sun again.

The mines are in good physical condition, due to the keeping of 3,000 maintenance men at work during the suspension.

When the miners' district convention meets here Tuesday little opposition to the new contract is expected. Some district leaders are unfavorable to the agreement because it contains no provision for an assured increase in wages but approval of the Philadelphia negotiations is regarded as a formality.

ASK REOPENING I. C. C. HEARINGS ON CHEESE RATES

Washington, Feb. 13.—(UP)—A petition requesting that the Interstate Commerce commission reopen hearings on rates on cheese from Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin to Illinois and Wisconsin were filed by western railroads today.

The commission some time ago ruled that proposed increased rates on cheese in car load lots were not justified. The railroads in their petition claim cheese is not an agricultural product and that revenue from increased rates are needed.

The roads desiring to boost the rates on cheese are the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie, Chicago & Northwestern, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Northwestern and the Northwestern & Omaha.

Frolic week opened Monday with the most elaborate parade ever staged in the northwest. A varied program has been carried through the six day event.

San Diego, Calif., Feb. 13.—(UP)—Luis Amador, proprietor of the Oakland bar, held in the Tia Juana jail, with Police Chief Zepaldo Llanos, as a principal suspect in the Petef family "shame suicide," attempted to end his life last night by slashing his wrists.

The attempt was discovered by guards in time to prevent death.

A. W. EWERT CONVICTED AS AN EMBEZZLER

WAS ONCE PRESIDENT OF ONE OF SOUTH DAKOTA'S LARGEST BANKS

JUDGE J. H. BOTTUM, THE TRIAL JUDGE, TO SET PENALTY MARCH 15TH

Faulton, S. D., Feb. 13.—(UP)—A. W. Ewert, once president of one of South Dakota's largest banks and treasurer of the State Rural Credits Board, is today a convicted embezzler, awaiting sentence. Judge J. H. Bottum, his trial judge, will set the penalty March 15.

The jury, composed of 10 farmers, a carpenter and a merchant that listened for five weeks to testimony in the case, took only about six hours to reach its decision. Two ballots were taken. The first was 10 for conviction, one for acquittal and one blank. On the second ballot the vote was unanimous for a verdict of guilty.

Immediately after, Paul Kretchmar, chairman, announced the decision, Roy A. Nord, counsel for Ewert, presented a motion for a 30 day stay of sentence which was granted.

Meanwhile Ewert faces numerous other state and federal charges for violation of banking laws and for perjury. An appeal from his conviction on embezzlement charges is also expected.

Ewert, haggard and downcast, after the long ordeal of his trial, was in the court room when the jury announced its verdict. He is at liberty today under the same bond that held during the trial.

The embezzlement trial had attracted intense interest throughout South Dakota but the sensational anticipated failed to materialize as day after day was given over to presentation of technical evidence. Hundreds of pages of bank records were identified by witnesses and introduced as exhibits.

The prosecution charged that when Ewert was removed from office as treasurer of the State Rural Credits Board he was $211,000 short in his accounts. The state sought to show how by manipulation in his National Bank of Commerce at Pierre of a Union Trust company account, Ewert had diverted state funds to his own use.

Ewert served in state office under Senators Peter Norbeck and W. H. McMaster when they were governors of South Dakota. He was removed by the present governor, Carl Gunderson. After the trial nine of the twelve jurors signed a protest to President Coolidge against appointment of C. N. Leedom as United States marshal for South Dakota. He was recently nominated by McMaster and Norbeck.

HIGH SEAS BEAT UPON CALIFORNIA

RAIN DRENCHES STATE, BRINGING PRECIPITATION TO NORMAL

San Francisco, Feb. 13.—(UP)—High seas beat upon the shores of California today while rain drenched the state and brought the season's precipitation to normal.

With the highest tides in years sweeping in, coast towns reported severe damage from the waves and winds accompanying.

Driven by a 60 mile gale, the breakers battered the coast from one end of the state to the other.

Locally the wreckage of the dynamited schooner Yosemite was swept against a pipe line pier, tearing out long sections. The coast highway was washed out in many places by the waves which broke across the thoroughfare.

At Santa Monica, San Luis Obispo and San Diego the storm was still beating in today, although showing some signs of lessening.

Storm warnings, however, were still flying with the weather bureau predicting additional gales.

Two men were drowned at Santa Monica when their small craft capsized.

A sun porch and dining room of a Pismo Beach ocean front hotel were torn away. Miles of a small railway at Port San Luis were undermined. Santa Cruz reported heavy damage, with a casino and two restaurants washed down.

While the breakers tore at the coast, rain covered the entire state, in some sections so heavy that motor and electric traffic was delayed. Little flood damage was anticipated, however, and the loss will be far more than offset by the crops' benefit.

CHICAGO-CLEVELAND AIR MAIL PLANE CRASHES TO GROUND

AIR PILOT ART SMITH KILLED, PLANE AND MAIL BURNED

Montpelier, O., Feb. 13.—(UP)—The nemesis of the aviator, an air pocket, today was believed responsible for the crash of an eastbound Chicago-Cleveland mail plane near here last night in which Art Smith, veteran air mail pilot, was killed. The plane burst into flames as it crashed. Smith was pinned beneath the craft and was dead when extricated.

Smith was flying toward the air mail field at Bryan, O., when the crash occurred. The plane hurtled into a tree and crashed to the ground with a roar. Nearby residents fought vainly to rescue Smith before he burned. Contents of the mail pouches were almost totally destroyed.

Smith was the originator of sky-writing and helped develop the army parachute as a life saving device, at McCook Field, Dayton.

GARMENT PROJECT GREAT SUCCESS

Nearly Sixty Farmer Women Attend
Organization Meeting at Chamber

CLOTHING SCHOOLS PLANNED

Four Monthly Meetings to be Held
With Achievement Day
After Last One

Nearly sixty women attended the garment making demonstration held Thursday noon and afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce, showing the keenest interest in the organization, proposed by Miss Julia Newton of the University of Minnesota, of a school of instruction in clothes making.

As explained by County Agent E. G. Roth, under whose guidance the arrangements for Thursday's meeting were made, there will be four monthly meetings held at three points in the county, at Brainerd, Pequot, and Crosby. The first will be in March, at Brainerd on the 15th, Pequot on the 16th and Crosby on the 17th. These will be for two women from each farmer women's group, and these two will then go back to their communities and carry the instructions to the rest of the group.

The meeting at the Chamber Thursday was to organize the work for these schools of instruction, and determine the project to be first worked on. By registration of the women present, it was learned that the clothing project is the one desired first. Other projects in the course of the home demonstration department include Home Management, Nutrition, and Poultry. These may be taken up next year.

The school will be conducted by Mrs. Bessie Duggan, of the University Home Management Division. The school will be held from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. The meetings will be held on four successive months, and at the close of the school, an achievement day will be held in Brainerd for the entire county. All women who have taken a part will enter exhibits of their work made under the instruction of the school, and judges will decide the prize-winning exhibits. This will be held during the latter part of June or in July. The achievement day held in Aitkin last year drew over 500 women, and their exhibits filled the Armory at that place to capacity.

The school periods of the clothing school will take up the care and use of the sewing machine, its appliances and accessories, and other items concerning the making of clothes for the entire family. The school is free to all, except for the materials used by the farmer woman in making her own articles.

The women who attended the meeting Thursday left with plans to call their neighbors into groups, the group then to choose two leaders who will attend the central schools, then these leaders to call their group back again for instruction in the matters learned at the school. In this way, all farm women will have a chance to get instruction in the work.

Those who attended the meeting Thursday, and registered, were the following:

South Long Lake—Mrs. Claude Wheeler, Mrs. H. L. Stearns, Mrs. A. U. Lovsted, Mrs. H. E. Dorsett, Baxter—Mrs. J. S. Anderson, Lake Edward—Mrs. H. M. Huff, Mrs. W. Tutch, Mrs. E. C. Meeting

TUESDAY AT 6:15 P. M.

Prominent Sportsmen From Deer-
wood, Ironton, Crosby
Coming to Attend

The pupils of the Whittier school will present their pageant, "America," as part of the program of the Izaak Walton league banquet on Tuesday evening, Feb. 16. This pageant was presented yesterday as part of the Lincoln day program at the Whittier school. The children are being coached by Miss Hulda Fossum, and Miss Helga Skarsted.

The sketch will be given right after the dinner, and will form a setting for Mrs. J. A. Thabes' address on the subject of "Conservation."

Tickets for the dinner are in the hands of the committee and all members of the league have been assigned for solicitation. The meeting promises to be one of the finest ever held, with a number of prominent sportsmen coming from Crosby, Ironton and Deerwood with a view to getting started toward an organization on the range.

The speaker of the evening will be G. H. Mattson, well known for his work along conservation of our natural resources. Mr. Mattson will address the league members and their wives on some subject of timely interest along the lines of the Izaak Walton league purpose. The dinner will start at 6:15 o'clock.

INDIAN BOYS IN WAR DANCE

Five Little Chieftains Add Color to Boy Scout Pow Wow Thursday Night

FROM MILLE LACS POST

Program of Scouts Shows Work of Boys During Camping
Period

Five young Indian chieftains from the Indian trading post at Mille Lacs lake added local color to the Boy Scout Pow Wow at the Park theatre Thursday night, appearing in three Indian dances, including a war dance and a squaw dance. They glided and shook through the steps to the beat of the Indian war drum, presided over by four other Indian boys. The boys were all about ten years of age, and gave a fine exhibition of dancing that provoked much interest on the part of the large audience.

The boys were clad in genuine Navajo blankets, brilliant colors lending a romantic touch to the dance performed in the semi-darkness of the stage. According to Scout Executive Newton, the Navajos are the only Indians who weave rugs or blankets. All other tribes use skins. The Navajo rug is associated so intimately, however, with the Indian customs in general, that they were used last night by the Chippewas. The blankets and rugs, as well as all Indian materials used in last night's show, are the property of Harry Ayers, of the trading post.

The audience got a thrill out of the rabbit skin robe worn by Winel Barnes as chief of the tribe, during the sketch presented by the sea scouts. This robe is made from 175 skins, tanned and stripped, and then twisted and woven into a soft, warm robe of ermine-like appearance.

The program of the scouts was presented in pleasing manner. It depicted the scouts at camp, beginning with the dawn of a new day at camp. The bugler, Dale Sanders, blew reveille, whereupon a group of pajama-clad boys rolled out of their tents and came sleepily to the stage, to go through a series of getting up exercises under Mr. Newton's direction. The boys then went to their tents to dress, and came out again at the call of assembly, dressed in Scout costume.

Immediately after the flag raising, mess was sounded, and the fellows rushed off to chow. Then came in turn instruction in life saving, a game period with troops 2 of Crosby, 1 of Deerwood and 3 of Brainerd participating, and a pyramid building by troop 1 of Ironton.

Pioneering in the woods occupied the attention of the boys next, the sea scouts building a suspension bridge, and troop 2 erecting a tower, which nearly caused disaster because of the loop holding the three poles being too loose. Troop 5 erected two tents.

Retreat was sounded, with Scoutmaster Hagel in charge. They came the delight of all campers, the campfire. Songs and yells were enjoyed, then the court of honor presented badges to deserving scouts. W. F. Wieland, Dr. A. K. Cohen, and C. A. Ryan were the court members presiding over this feature, presenting second class badges to Ralph Luken and Ralph Hoopman, and merit badges to Carl Zapffe and Scoutmaster Hagel. Merit badges were also to be given to Henry Viken, Winel Barnes, Guy Hawkins, and Kenneth Storm, but these boys were dressing for the Indian scene to follow, and could not come forward.

An Eagle Scout badge, the highest honor in scouting, was then awarded to Carl Zapffe, who has twenty-one merit badges to his credit, and who completed the Eagle Scout requirements in the remarkably short time of eleven months and three days.

In the Indian scene following, the sea scouts presented an interesting picturization of an Indian council, for choosing a new chief. The boys were dressed in costume, and held a war dance, to the beat of the drum by Indians from the trading post at Mille Lacs lake. The drum used by the Indians is a beautifully beaded one, which the Indians never allow to leave their hands. It has been used by medicine men of the tribe, and is considered a sacred possession.

The closing feature of the evening was the benediction pronounced by Rev. A. G. Patterson, expressed in the simple theology of a boy's understanding.

BRAINERD SHOULD STIR ITSELF

BRAINERD should stir itself to provide more employment in this town. The county commissioners early sensed this and ordered grubbing started on the Riverside drive. That gave work to some men.

Another plan of the county board, as discussed by the members, said A. G. Anderson when he spoke at the Chamber of Commerce meeting, is to scrap the old court house. This would give employment to men in tearing down the structure, cleaning the bricks for re-sale, taking nails out of serviceable lumber, etc. Mr. Anderson's idea is that clearing the lot would enable the realty to be sold and would restore that section to the tax rolls. However, one contractor at the meeting had said that nothing can be gained by dismantling, for that cost will exceed anything derived from the sale of reclaimed building material. The county board will discuss the whole proposition at its March meeting. The Chamber went on record asking for an extension of its option on the old court house, pledging a renewed effort to place some industry in the building.

St. Paul has set in motion a campaign of winter building. The things favoring this are plenty of labor, material, the certainty of prompt service in all building lines and the evident desire of labor and material men to cooperate with builders at a time when there is no rush.

The water and light board of Brainerd is considering improvements to be made as quickly as building operations become practicable. With that idea in view they called L. P. Wolff, of St. Paul, consulting engineer of the board, to Brainerd. All improvements for 1926 were carefully gone over. These include construction of a new open well; rebuilding of the electrical distributing system taking poles mostly off of streets; building of warehouse on Laurel street near the Mississippi river bridge. This latter is to be 60 feet square, built of brick and a story in height and will be used jointly by the city of Brainerd and the water and light board.

The state highway department will shortly start construction of a brick building on Laurel street just west of the Benson property. It will house a garage, machine shop, storage rooms, warehouse, etc.

The Elks building committee contemplates erection of an Elks home on the Elks site, northeast corner of Laurel and South Sixth streets. Other building by other firms and individuals is also contemplated. THE DISPATCH may enlarge or rebuild in harmony with the Elks home immediately adjoining its property.

"TAINTED CATTLE"

"TAINTED cattle," an expression made memorable by Col. C. D. Johnson in his address at the druggists convention in Minneapolis, bids fair to rank with the great expressions of other famous men. For instance Grover Cleveland, who however was no friend of Charley, made famous the remark concerning "innocuous desuetude." And Gertrude Atherton wrote of "Black Oxen."

The colonel hit the bootleg druggists squarely between the eyes when he termed them "tainted cattle." Said Col. Johnson, in part:

"The tainted cattle in our business have given the entire profession a bad name. An act on the part of Congress relieving us of the responsibility of distributing intoxicants would eliminate the bootleg druggist."

"There are druggists," said the colonel in elucidation of the above, "who have set up supposedly respectable drug store businesses for no other purposes than to distribute intoxicating beverages."

We have wondered where the colonel got his inspiration for the "tainted cattle" metaphor and eventually solved it. He was a speaker at the evening smoker of the Minnesota State Dairy-men's convention in Brainerd and heard so much said about cattle, cows and bulls, scrub and mongrel and pure bred, healthy cattle and diseased or tubercular cattle, that his mind just romped across the pastures and seized upon the startling metaphor.

WHERE ARE THE OLD FIDDLERS?

WHERE are our old fiddlers? Has this fraternity retired so deeply in its shell that not a sound disturbs the serenity of a winter day. Surely like the ground hog, the old fiddlers should take the air occasionally.

WCCO in its recent Legion musicale gave the old fiddlers a prominent place. Henry Ford put a Maine fiddlers on a pedestal of fame. Finkelstein & Ruben unearthed scores of old fiddlers in the Twin Cities and created such a furore that the contest was removed to the company's largest playhouses in order to house the crowds thronging to hear the fiddlers.

Brainerd theatres of the F. & R. circuit have staged a fiddlers contest and the winner of this will meet the winner of the Twin Cities. So far the only entry reporting at Brainerd is Luke Spencer. Luke is an all-around musician, for he is also a handy man with the bones and the mouth organ. Luke entered the contest by signing up at the Dispatch office. He has a large repertoire, but at the moment was undecided which three selections to enter.

The St. Mathias country is prolific in fiddlers and Mr. Capistrant can play his fiddle in more positions than Ole Bull ever dreamed of.

WE have heard of "trial" marriages in the Philippines, also on the mainland of America. But the Stillmans are the first to have a "trial" reconciliation. In all the marital suits of the couple, Mrs. Stillman has invariably been victor and maybe Mr. Stillman has considered it better to "make up" than continue losing expensive litigation.

FRED LINDQUIST of Olivia claims to have harvested 915 bushels of Gopher oats from nine acres.

New industries brought to Red Wing last year pay $25,000 a year in wages.

WE have fishermen liars and hunters liars, but they are as nothing when compared with a radio liar.

JACK HOLT AND FLORENCE VIDOR IN 'THE ENCHANTED HILL'
BY PETER B. KYNE, AN IRVIN WILLAT PRODUCTION FOR PARAMOUNT
This is the picture version of the widely read Peter B. Kyne novel, which Irvin Willat, noted director of "North of 36," produced with a stellar cast featuring Jack Holt, Florence Vidor, Noah Beery and Mary Brian.
Heralded as sounding a new note in western productions, "The Enchanted Hill" opens at the Lyceum theatre Sunday for a two days' run.

$125,000 FIRE AT IOWA CITY, IA.

Iowa City, Ia., Feb. 13.—(UP)—Combining the entire force of the city fire fighting departments, firemen and police succeeded in quenching the flames that consumed the Englert theater building, largest theater in town here this afternoon. The fire threatened for an hour to spread over half a city block. Defective wiring in the rear loft was reported to have started the blaze.

The damage was complete and estimated at $125,000, including equipment and theater building. Insurance covered about half the loss.

Firms in adjoining office buildings suffered a loss of several hundred dollars from water and smoke. Roomers on the third floor of the Englert building lost most of their possessions.

Meantime considerable interest is aroused at the likelihood of general nationalization of church property. It appears likely that the republic will not enforce the constitutional provisions for such nationalization which long have existed but have not hitherto been strictly enforced.

With the departure of 14 Spanish priests to Cuba it is rumored that foreign priests generally are to be deported.

RENEW EFFORTS FOR NEW TRIAL FOR GLEEMANS

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 13.—(UP)—Efforts to obtain a new trial for Ben and Abe Gleeman, convicted for the murder of Burton Stevens in a twin cities bootleg war and sentenced to life terms at Stillwater penitentiary, were renewed here today.

The Gleemans testified at Cleveland this week before the federal grand jury investigating an alleged nationwide liquor ring.

Notice of motion for either a new trial or reopening of a recent hearing on a motion for retrial, denied Nov. 24, was filed in district court by attorneys for the convicts. Hearing on the motion will probably be held at a special term of court next Saturday.

"The Merry Widow" Great Photoplay
One of the finest pictures it has ever been our pleasure to see was presented last night at the New Park theatre, where it will be shown again tonight and Sunday. It is entitled "The Merry Widow." The production is a splendid piece of workmanship and shows Mae Murray and John Gilbert, as co-stars, doing the best work of their varied and brilliant careers. Erich von Stroheim whose directorial genius immortalized "Foolish Wives" has fulfilled a similar function with "The Merry Widow."

Dick Talmadge at Lyceum Tonight

A story of great adventures on the high seas, and the hunt for a treasure trove buried by a piratical old ancestor on a desert island in the South Pacific makes "The Isle of Hope," the latest starring vehicle for the agile Richard Talmadge a picture of peculiar interest and continuous excitement. The production will be seen locally at the Lyceum theatre tonight only.

HEDDA HOYT TALKS ABOUT THINGS THAT INTEREST THE BUSY WOMAN OF 1926

SPORT TOGS

New York, Feb. 11.—(UP)—The sporting outfits worn at St. Moritz are no more elaborate than those worn in the popular American resort, Lake Placid. Here girls from every part of the country spend a portion of the winter skiing and skating in costumes that might do well in a Ziegfeld chorus.

Colors rage rampant. This season colorful leather windbreakers worn with either short skirts or knickers of contrasting shades are popular. The jacket may be the conventional one with high neck and sleeves finished in knitted bands or it may be made lapels and worn with a turtle necked sweater. In most cases the jacket is unbelted but if belted, the belt extends across the back only.

Jackets of vivid red or green suede lined in plaid flannel to correspond with the plaid flannel skirt or knickers are numerous. Green and brown leather jackets lined in lipstick red, worn with flannel skirts matching the jackets are also noted. Knickers are far more numerous than skirts, although the circular skirt which extends just an inch below the knee is far more graceful than knickers.

Pastel suede jackets worn with contrasting colored skirts are very becoming. One young Miss at Lake Placid follows this mode with a coat of pastel blue suede worn with a short yellow flannel skirt. Her plaid scarf combines blue and yellow shade. Cap and woolen stockings are pastel blue.

Very short fur coats of leopard, racoon or caracul are warmer, though not so colorful as the vivid leather jacket. A great many young girls are wearing them. Caps, mittens and socks are now being sold in sets and are quite the popular thing this year. There's a fad for wearing two pairs of stockings, the top pair being short colorful affairs to harmonize with one's ensemble. Caps are knitted head-fitting shapes or sueded trimmed in fur.

IN SAME JAIL WITH HER HUSBAND

Beaver City, Neb., Feb. 13.—(UP)—Charged with being an accessory to the murder of her husband's first wife, Kate Reessler Davis, is in the same jail with her husband today. The grand jury ordered her held without bond.

The husband, Bert M. Davis, is awaiting trial on a first degree murder charge. Mrs. Davis was bound over after the court had listened to numerous letters written to his present wife before the death of the first Mrs. Davis.

One of the letters concluded: "I don't give a damn what happens, but honey, don't ask me to take my wife in my arms and love her. That is utterly impossible but if I can take my love in my arms, oh, then I'm happy."

BERGDOLL, DRAFT EVADER, ARRESTED AT MOSBACH, GERMANY

Berlin, Feb. 13.—(UP)—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger, has been arrested at Mosbach, state of Baden, following his return to Baden, after a long search.

The exact nature of the charges against him are not revealed.

Bergdoll, whose home was in Philadelphia, created a great sensation when he declined to serve in the American army during the war and by an artifice succeeded in making his way to Germany. There he took refuge in Eberbach, a hamlet in the state of Baden, but more than a year ago mysteriously disappeared after several attempts had been made to kidnap him. One one of these attempts Bergdoll shot and killed one of his would-be captors.

DR. ROY SMITH'S SATURDAY NIGHT TALKS

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

NARROW THE ROAD AND LENGTHEN THE SNAKE

Two friends, one a woodsman and the other a plainsman, were exchanging experiences. The woodsman was relating a thrilling story in which he came upon a rattlesnake that stretched clear across the road.

"That's a good story, but rattlesnakes do not grow that long. I have lived on the plains in the rattlesnake country all my life and they do not grow more than three feet long," exclaimed the plainsman.

The argument continued with considerable heat for some time until each discovered that both were right. The woodsman was thinking in terms of timber snakes which grow long and timber roads which are narrow. The plainsman was thinking of prairie roads which are wide and prairie snakes which are short.

As they began to get one another's viewpoint one man lengthened out his snake and the other narrowed up his road and they were soon in agreement.

The average town feud, church quarrel, family squabble and even the labor dispute could be amicably settled if one party was willing to lengthen his snake while the other narrowed his road.

It is not always a sign of strength to stand determinedly by a position. Honest convictions and pure stubbornness are frequently confused.

The resilient spirit that will bend under pressure and give under necessity is a very useful bit of equipment for the individual who must work in the busy world of today.

Many a friendship could be saved if we took time to get the other person's viewpoint.

The average man is honest if we can discover the principle upon which he is basing his contention. He is reasonable if we can get his viewpoint.

It is seldom the case that a settlement of any serious difference can be hoped for if we require a lengthening of the snake with no corresponding narrowing of the road.

LAWYERS' FEES TO BE INVESTIGATED

Washington, Feb. 13.—(UP)—Investigation of the alien property custodian's office by comptroller General McCarl has brought out facts that will result in suits against attorneys hired by the government during the war, Howard Sutherland, newly appointed alien property custodian, told President Coolidge today.

In 10 months of investigation McCarl found numerous cases in which attorneys were allowed excessive fees in the seizure and sale of valuable alien property. Sutherland said. He added that he had written letters to these attorneys asking for an itemized statement of their accounts and he intends to bring legal action against these lawyers who cannot prove the value of their services.

In one week 102,909 thronged to see it

During the week of the National Automobile Show, January 9-16, over 100,000 men and women came direct from Grand Central Palace to the Willys-Overland showrooms, at Broadway and 50th Street, New York, to enjoy a better view of the new "70" Willys-Knight Six. These in their eager thousands found it impossible to give it close enough examination, so great were the crowds around it at the show!

Super-efficiency, through Greater Power Development

This new "70" Six applies the principles of high speed engine construction to the Knight Sleeve-Valve motor with startling results. With a 215-16 inch bore and a 43-8 inch stroke this new Sleeve-Valve Six engine delivers greater power per cubic inch of piston displacement throughout its complete range, than any stock American motor-car engine built today. Speed capacity is well in excess of 60 miles an hour; acceleration is positively startling, and its power on hills is a revelation.

Positive mechanical four-wheel brakes—easiest steering

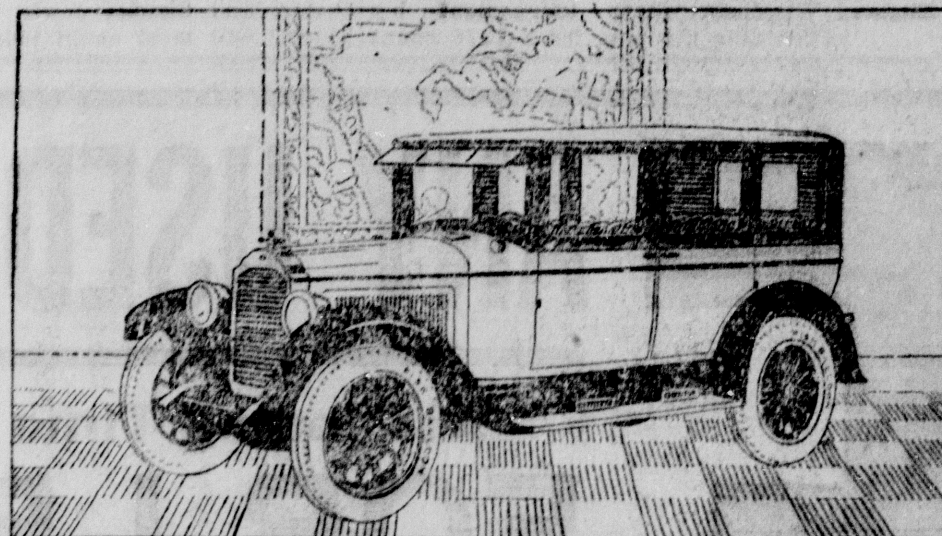

—the perfected braking system the finest and most advanced cars of Europe and America today employ—a system regarded by the best engineering practice as the most dependable and most nearly infallible of all brakes. Easiest steering—the steering facility of this phenomenal car is literally amazing. Eight Timken bearings cradle the steering mechanism with the utmost absence of friction.

A body of marvelous beauty

Never has such beauty, such style, such smartness been approximated as is conspicuously present in this distinguished Six. While compact to the

BILL TILDEN SOON TO FACE A SEVERE TEST

NATIONAL INDOOR TENNIS PLAY CHAMPIONSHIPS

WORLD TENNIS CHAMPION CAN NOT TRIFLE WITH FIELD HE IS FACING

HEADED BY LA COSTE, RICHARDS, BOROTRA AND HUNTER

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Feb. 13.—Bill Tilden will face one of the most severe tests in his career in the National Indoor championships starting here next Monday and in the international matches against the French team the week following.

The world's tennis champion is not exactly in grave danger of defeat, but he is in a spot where he cannot trifle with a field headed by Rene LaCoste, Vinnie Richards, Jean Borotra and Frank Hunter.

LaCoste, the young French star, and the Wimbledon champion of last year, is the big threat against the tall American. LaCoste is easily one of the greatest stars of tennis and he has been coming along at a surprising speed.

Borotra won the championship here last winter, but the field against him was not heavy as the American players have not paid much attention to the indoor game since Tilden began to ignore it.

Richards is one of the best ranking players indoors and he knows the courts like a book. He has not played in the nationals for several years, but he has been keeping up on his game in minor tournaments. He is one player who does not give up before he goes on the courts against Tilden and even gets more out of his game when he is playing the champion.

Tilden is not up on his game now, but he may get going through the early rounds of the tournament.

He has been busy all winter with his theatrical venture and he will be back on the stage next week with the same show that was forced to close last week. He may not be in the best of condition because of the strain and worry he has been going through as he is understood to have invested heavily in the play. He said recently that his game was off as his eyes had been weakened by the glare of footlights.

Tilden is so good that he can spot any player in the game a handicap and win out, but if he is off his game he will have trouble.

HELEN WILLS KEEPS UP HER SMASHING GAME

By RALPH HEINZEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Cannes, France, Feb. 13.—Keeping up her smashing game, Helen Wills, American tennis champion, today overwhelmed Aintower Roy, France, 6-0 and 6-0.

The American champion played most brilliantly and showed her opponents no heart. Her point score in the first set was 28 to 15 and in the second 24 to 6.

Miss Wills also scored a victory in the doubles. Teamed with Mlle Henrietta Contoslavos, young French star, she defeated the British team, Miss Young and Miss Green at 6-0 and 6-2.

Mlle Lenglen also sped through another love match when she overwhelmed Mary Cambridge, England in straight sets.

BUTLER, STAR INFIELDER FOR WHOM MINNEAPOLIS GETS 6 DODGER PLAYERS

Manager Wilbert Robinson wants Johnny Butler so much that he is giving the Minneapolis club six Brooklyn Dodger players in exchange. This young star has played at shortstop, first base and third base with equal success. Butler took part in 147 games in 1925 and finished with a batting average of .339. No cash is involved in the deal for Butler but it is figured that he cost Brooklyn $75,000.

THREE LETTER UNIVERSITY MAN KNOWN IN BRAINERD

ELDON MASON HAS WON LETTERS FOR FOOTBALL, BASEBALL, BASKETBALL

POPULAR PLAYER SPOKE IN BRAINERD LAST SPRING AT HI-Y CLUB BANQUET

Eldon Mason, three letter player of the University of Minnesota, is known to several Brainerd people. A picture of him was published in The Dispatch early this week, together with an article telling of his athletic work.

In April of 1925, Eldon Mason spoke in Brainerd at a banquet held at the Methodist church, under the auspices of the Hi-Y club. At that time, a number of Brainerd folks met him. Also, at the Older Boys' Conference at Minneapolis in December, several local boys heard him deliver a fine talk at the banquet, appearing on the same program as ex-Mayor Meyers, Rev. Roy Smith and Governor Christianson.

Mason has won letters in baseball as a second baseman, in football as a valuable reserve back, and in basketball as a regular guard. He has one year of competition left after this year.

STRONG TEAM FOR WIMBLEDON TOURNEY

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 13.—Officials of the United States Lawn Tennis association, eager to win back from England the Wightman international cup, want to send the strongest team of women players to Wimbledon that can be organized.

There is plenty of playing strength in the United States but it may not be available because of some temperament which is not uncommon among the fair athletes.

Mrs. Molla Mallory, former champion and one of the most experienced internationalists in this country, is understood to have sent word to the association that she does not desire an appointment to the team unless she is given the second ranking place on the team.

On the national ranking list for 1925, Mrs. Mallory was placed third behind Helen Wills, the champion and Elizabeth Ryan, the former California star.

While no definite announcement has been made it is taken for granted that Miss Ryan will be named for the team and it would follow from the judgment of the ranking committee that she would be named as the No. 2 player.

Some smart tennis men believe that Miss Ryan not only is entitled to second place but that, in this particular case, she has ability to warrant giving her first place on the team.

Miss Ryan knows every blade of the turf at Wimbledon and she is thoroughly familiar with the English ball as she played in England for more than ten years.

Mrs. Mallory, of course, has played a lot in England and France but she doesn't know the conditions at Wimbledon as Miss Ryan does.

Helen Wills, playing last year for the first time on a foreign court was hopelessly handicapped at Wimbledon where she was beaten several times and it was shown conclusively at that time that it was essential for a player to know more than strokes on the mossy velvet of the center court at Wimbledon.

The young champion should do better this year as she will have the chance to get in more than a month of practice in the tournaments preliminary to the Wimbledon championships.

It is not actually certain that Miss Ryan will be considered eligible for the team. The mere fact that she was given second place on the ranking list does not mean that she has reestablished herself as an American player because numerous foreign players are ranked in the men's class.

From a point of justice, there should be no doubt about Miss Ryan's eligibility because she never has renounced her citizenship and when the team sails she will have spent a year in this country and that ought to establish her nationality.

in nine games. The previous record was 1961 made by Jimmy Smith at Greenbay in 1923. Koch scored 702 in the five men event, 622 in the doubles and 652 in the singles.

LOCAL TEAM DROPS SECOND GAME ON TOUR AT DULUTH LAST NIGHT

HEIKKINEN GOES WILD TO SCORE FIVE BASKETS IN THE LAST HALF

Heikkinen, playing his first game at the forward position, went wild to drop in five baskets in the last half of last night's game between the Rainbows and the French Athletic club at Duluth, which the Rainbows lost by a 28 to 18 score.

Playing a heady and shifty brand of ball in the last half of the contest, the Brainerd players outplayed their opponents during the third and fourth periods of the game, but could not overcome a 19 to 4 lead of the Frenchmen at the half.

The Athletic club players went fine in the first half, scoring nine field goals and one free throw, and holding the Rainbows to two field goals, one each by Larson and Ziebell. Gernander and Kranmic, guards, were the high scorers in this period, the former with two baskets and the latter with three. Kranmic continued his good work in the last half, getting three more.

The game was played in fast style, but got rough in spots. Only one personal was called on the Duluth players, and five on the Rainbows. St. Louis Man Has National Reputation as School and Consulting Architect

The board of education held a special meeting on Wednesday evening, with Wm. B. Ittner, school architect of St. Louis, present for conference. The entire board was present, and the members asked a multitude of questions of Mr. Ittner regarding advice on the school situation in this city.

Mr. Ittner is one of the best known school architects in the country, and has also long enjoyed a national reputation as a consulting architect.

The board of education has for some time been at a loss to know what course to pursue with reference to the high school needs of this city. To add to the embarrassment, the state department of education has been urging the board in no mistakable language that more adequate high school accommodations be provided to meet the state standards of efficiency.

A communication on the subject from the state high school inspector was recently published in the Brainerd papers.

Since the unfavorable vote on the school bonds, last April, the board has been in a quandary, as to whether to consult an architect at once, or to wait for further developments.

About a year ago the board selected a list of nine architects from a very large number of candidates, and extended to them the opportunity of appearing before the board and presenting their qualifications and terms with reference to a new high school. All of the nine men appeared for a personal conference with the board except Mr. Ittner, who was unable on account of business engagements to be present on the date fixed by the school board.

During the last week, the board has given Mr. Ittner an opportunity to confer with them on the matter. As a result of this conference, Mr. Ittner was instructed to prepare sketches and estimates as to cost of construction of a high school building on several proposed sites, one being the present high school ground.

Before leaving Brainerd, Mr. Ittner took a general survey of all school buildings in Brainerd and secured statistical data with reference to school needs to be used in connection with his estimates as to cost of a new building.

The board of education hopes that within a reasonably short time some proposal may be offered to the people of Brainerd for their action in connection with the school building problem.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

Interest Growing in Services at Full Gospel Assembly; Herman Johnson is Speaker

"The revival services" at the Full Gospel Assembly have been growing in power and interest, and last night saw the largest crowd of any service so far, which filled the church, and listened with rapt attention to the message delivered by evangelist Herman G. Johnson, on the subject, "Christ Crowded Out." The scripture lesson read was Luke 2:7, and Rev. 3:14-22.

The speaker showed from ancient and modern history that nations that have crowded God out of their national life have not escaped the consequences of their sin. "And America," the speaker declared, "the greatest and best country in the world, lying the best flag that ever was unfurled to the breeze, cannot hope to escape the same judgment when she is following in the footsteps of these sin-laden nations. The only hope for America today, is back to God, back to Jesus, back to her knees."

The evangelist then spoke of Christ crowded out in the commercial world, the religious world, the homes and from the individual. There is a strong tendency today to leave out the preaching of the Cross and the atoning blood, which is the soul's only hope for eternity.

Christ was described standing outside the door, knocking for admittance, and the evangelist closed with a picture of the Judgment day, when the soul who has no room for Jesus here, will find no room in Heaven.

Service tonight at 7:45 o'clock. Come early if you want a seat.

Garden Banquet Postponed

The banquet scheduled for Wednesday evening, Feb. 17, at the First Methodist church, has been postponed until a later date. Other affairs next week are commanding so much attention from all interested in the meeting that it was thought advisable by the officers to set the meeting later.

POETRY OF LONG AGO

Miss Marian Phelps Finds Rhyme Written by Her Great Aunt

Recently in looking over old papers and letters, Miss Marian Phelps of this city, found the following rhyme, written by her great aunt, Caroline Clement nearly one hundred years ago, for it bears the date Aug. 3, 1829. Miss Clement was a school teacher in Kentucky, and it seems that in those days school ma'ams felt somewhat the same regarding their work as we often hear them express themselves now.

Following is the rhyme:
"Of all the servants first and last
School teachers have the hardest task."

Servants they are to every one,
Father and Mother, daughter and son,
Through rain and mud and cold and snow
To school they must forever go.
And when their daily task is done,
They cannot stay but home must turn.

EVANGELICALS DOWN BAPTISTS; LUTHERANS WIN

ZAWADSKI HIGH SCORER IN 7 TO 6 VICTORY OVER FIRST BAPTISTS

LUTHERANS STAY ON TOP WITH DEFEAT OVER PRESBYTERIAN JUNIORS

The Evangelical Intermediates came through the first game last night with a bare victory over the First Baptists, by a 7 to 6 score. The game was rough from start to finish, with both teams in the game for blood.

The winners lead at the half time, 5 to 2, but the Baptists came back strong in the second half to score four points to two for their opponents, but could not quite make the grade for victory.

Zawadski for the winners made five points for high scoring honors. Hanson made the other two points made by the winners. For the Baptists, Lewis, Storm and Barnes were even, with one field goal apiece. Barnes and Storm played splendid games for the losers, while Stanley and Zawadski were the best for the winners.

Field goals—Zawadski 2, Hanson 1, Lewis 1, Storm 1, Barnes 1. Free throws—Zawadski 1, Referee—Guin, Luth. 9, Presby. 3.

The Lutheran Juniors continue to lead the younger division of the league with six victories and one defeat, Halvorson leading his teammates to a 9-3 win over the Presbyterians. Jerry scored three field goals and one free throw. Dahl scored the other two points on a field goal.

Halvorson played his fine brand of basketball as usual, being even a little better than ordinarily. The team played without the services of their center, Wade, who has passed the age limit for the Junior division.

For the Presbyterians, Greger, Anderson and Patterson played the best. They held the Lutherans to a tie at three all until well into the second half, when Halvorson and Dahl started a bombardment on the basket that netted three goals in a short time.

BREAKS IN INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES

New York, Feb. 13.—(UP)—Price movements in the week end session were extremely confused due to violent breaks in various industrial specialties following an early demonstration of strength in the general list.

This initial buoyancy was stimulated by several constructive developments over the holiday, particularly settlement of the coal strike and publication of federal reserve brokerage loan figures, which were considerably below those reported by the stock exchange.

Good feeling created by these factors resulted in sharp advances in Delaware & Hudson, Lackawana & Western and Philadelphia & Reading coals and in the establishment of fresh record highs in General Electric, Allied Chemical and American Can. But the forward movement was abruptly arrested by the spectacular break in Devco & Reynolds "A" stock on selling based on the company's poor earnings showing in 1925. The market closed irregular.

"If I had only known"

Two women went out to buy a certain expensive labor-saving device for the home.

One was greatly disappointed when, a few days later, they compared notes. She had bought the same product that many of her friends had owned.

The other woman had secured a greatly improved, new product—costing less, but of much more value.

"If I had only known there was a better one," the first woman said, "I would never have bought this old one."

"I had just read about it in an advertisement," explained the wise buyer.

Every day you miss good news of an improvement in different articles of merchandise—unless you read the advertisements. They tell you of practically every worth-while invention—of every progress from the old to the new.

Read the advertisements—regularly. Know all about the thing you are going to buy before you buy it. It will save disappointment, money and time.

The better a product is—the sooner you'll see it in an advertisement
